Poolside Reflections –

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. 2 Corinthians 5:17

When will we learn that Christian character is not the result of keeping resolutions.

- There is the “I plan to get into shape” resolution – I used to make that promise till I discovered that round is a shape.
- There is the “I am going to watch my weight” resolution - The only problem is that it is finally out there where I can see it – now what do I do?
- There is the “I plan to read my Bible through in a year” resolution – that usually works till you reach Genesis 5. What’s Genesis 5 you ask? I guess you didn’t even get that far did you?
- There is the “I will stop procrastinating” resolution that you just never really get around to starting.
- I knew a man who promised to watch less TV - so he bought himself a set with a smaller screen.
- Finally, there is the “I promise to pray and fast more this year” resolution. What happens is that you just begin to pray fast.

The word “resolution” does not appear in any translation of the Bible that I have read. But the word “new” appears over 150 times. The message of the Gospel is about making things new! Christ did not enter your life to make you a “better you”, but a “new you”. Pray for new opportunities to serve this year. We are embarking on an exciting time of ministry and missions. Allow Christ to place a new call upon your service in His Kingdom. He makes us new creations to fit us for new tasks.
